

Maren Cohn, Ph.D.

Big picture thinker who quickly grasps the financial, business, legal, and personal nuances of complex situations. Perceptive observer able to develop and articulate creative solutions to thorny problems. Fifteen years of hands-on experience managing teams in stressful business contexts. Enjoys collaboration and is comfortable in a variety of roles. Clear-headed, direct, personable, and sometimes funny.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Senior Associate, Hamstreet & Associates, Portland, Oregon

2005-present

Primary areas of experience:

- Case management and leader of special projects.
- Business assessments and strategic analysis.
- Advisory work in governance and management.
- Communications and stakeholder/investor relations.
- Conversant in bankruptcy, receivership, and other legal settings.

Key skills:

- Exceptional ability to get up to speed quickly in complex situations.
- Exceptional written communication skills, particularly in the articulation of nuanced, complex, and/or sensitive situations.
- Understands the big picture, focuses on what needs to get done, forms and executes plans of action that respect multiple constituencies.

Lewis & Clark College, Portland, Oregon

2002-2005

St. John's College, Santa Fe, New Mexico

1995-2002

10 years' college teaching experience in philosophy, literature, languages, math, and science in Great Books and Classical Studies programs.

EDUCATION

Ph.D. and M.A. from the Committee on Social Thought at The University of Chicago.

1989-1995

Century Fellow

A.B. with Honors and Distinction in Modern Thought and Literature from Stanford University.

1983-1987

Golden Award for Excellence in the Humanities

Phi Beta Kappa